NOVEMBER 2008 - HONORING LEE COUNTY VETERANS

Fort Myers, FL, 10/30/08 - Americans have been celebrating and honoring veterans since World War I. Lee County Animal Services joins the tradition of celebrating and honoring Lee County military personnel, as community heroes who served their country, affording all Americans the freedoms we continue to enjoy today.

During the month of November, Lee County Animal Services is proud to offer a free pet adoption for active and retired military personnel with proper documentation. The adoption of Lee County Animal Services pets includes spaying or neutering, vaccinations, de-worming, ten (10) day pet adoption health guarantee, six-month heartworm preventative, microchipping, heartworm testing for dogs and Hill's Science Diet pet food samples.
