

Looking for Love! Lee County Offers February Pet Adoption Special

Fort Myers, Florida, 1/28/10—Love is in the air the entire month of February at Lee County Domestic Animal Services (LCDAS). If you've been looking for love in all the wrong places or you just need a new best friend, LCDAS has a sweet deal for you. All month long the agency is offering $25 off the regular adoption for all adult pets. The reduced adoption fee will still include the complete package of services consisting of sterilization, age appropriate vaccinations, county license, microchip ID, worming, flea treatment, a heartworm test for dogs, feline aids and leukemia test for cats, 10 Day Health Guarantee, and a bag of Hill's Science Diet dog or cat food. The adoption package is valued at over $500.

True love comes in all shapes and sizes! Whether it's a lap kitty or an energetic little dog that would make a perfect jogging companion, LCDAS can find your perfect match. Make plans to find your true love today by visiting the shelter at 5600 Banner Drive, Fort Myers next to the Lee County Sheriff's Office off Six Mile Cypress Parkway. For those that would like to view their matches first, love is just a click away when you visit the website at www.LeeLostPets.com. All pets available for adoption are featured online with your perfect match's personal information.

Visit Lee County Domestic Animal Services' shelter during February to a get sweet deal on the love of your life. The only mystery is who will be your love match?
