

Press Release

MEDIA CONTACT:

Ria Brown
Lee County Domestic Animal Services
239-533-9202

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

My Furry Valentine!
Lee County Offers February Pet Adoption Special

Fort Myers, Florida, 1/31/12—Love is in the air during February at Lee County Domestic Animal Services. If you'd like a departure from the traditional roses and chocolates, then treat yourself to a "Furry Valentine" this year. All month long LCDAS is offering $25 off the regular adoption fee for all pets plus cats and kittens are 2 for 1. The reduced adoption fee will still include the complete package of services consisting of sterilization, age appropriate vaccinations, county license, microchip ID, de-worming, flea treatment, a heartworm test for dogs, feline aids and leukemia test for cats, 10 Day Health Guarantee, and a bag of Hill's Science Diet dog or cat food. The adoption package is valued at over $500.

True love comes in all shapes and sizes! Whether it's a lap kitty or an energetic little dog that would make a perfect jogging companion, LCDAS can find your perfect match. Make plans to find your true love today by visiting the shelter at 5600 Banner Drive, Fort Myers next to the Lee County Sheriff's Office off Six Mile Cypress Parkway.

For those that would like to view their matches first, love is just a click away when you visit the website at www.LeeLostPets.com. All pets available for adoption are featured online with your perfect match's personal information. Adoption applications may be submitted online or in person.

Visit Lee County Domestic Animal Services' shelter during February to meet your "Furry Valentine." The only mystery is who will be your love match? For more information about pets for adoption go to www.LeeLostPets.com or call (239) 533-7387 (LEE-PETS). If you are inquiring about a pet you have seen online, please have the animal ID number ready for faster assistance. "My Furry Valentine" is part of Lee County's Quasiquicentennial Anniversary celebration!

Lee County's Quasiquicentennial Anniversary

Lee County invites the community to join in its year-long 125th anniversary celebration. The county— named in honor of Civil War Gen. Robert E. Lee—was carved from Monroe County and incorporated on May 13, 1887.

###