

Noble Jewelers Gold Exchange Fundraiser to benefit Lee County Domestic Animal Services

Fort Myers, Fla. (October 9, 2009) – Support Lee County Domestic Animal Services Gold Exchange Fundraising Event/Pet Costume Contest October 24th.

Noble Jewelers is hosting a Gold Exchange fundraiser to benefit Lee County Domestic Animal Services (LCDAS) and their Animal Care Trust Fund Saturday, October 24th from 11:30am – 2:30 pm. A percentage of all proceeds from gold and silver that is brought to LCDAS, located at 5600 Banner Drive, Ft. Myers, Florida 33912, will be donated to the agency's Animal Care Trust Fund. Additionally, LCDAS will be hosting a Microchip Clinic, Costume Contest and Games for your animals.

Noble Jewelers is requesting each person bring their broken, tangled, unwanted jewelry pieces, out of date styles, silverware, platters, necklaces, earrings, bracelets, rings and even dental gold - items many people have laying around in their jewelry boxes. Noble Jewelers professional staff will be on site to assist you.

Noble Jewelers has held similar fundraisers for other community organizations, business locations and non-profits throughout Florida with great success. “This gold exchange fundraiser is a win-win for anyone wanting to get cash for their unwanted gold and silver jewelry,” said Marne Jo Hovland, Director of Business Development for Noble Jewelers. “Customers will walk out with extra money and Noble Jewelers is delighted to donate to a great cause.”

LCDAS provides animal control services throughout Lee County and operates an animal shelter to house stray and abandoned domestic animals. The agency also supports foster, adoption, low-cost spay/neuter and volunteer programs as well as a Community Pet Pantry for pet owners suffering financial difficulties. “This is a unique partnership and a FUN event. We encourage the community to help support the Animal Care Trust Fund and the animals by attending this event,” stated Ria Brown, Public Information Specialist for LCDAS.
