

STORM INFORMATION HOTLINE TRAINS VOLUNTEERS

Fort Myers--The United Way 211 Storm Information Hotline will be hosting a volunteer training on Friday, June 26, 2009, from 3 to 4 p.m. at the United Way of Lee, Hendry and Glades. Anyone interested is encouraged to register and attend.

The training is an opportunity to learn how the United Way 211 Storm Information Hotline operates during a natural or man-made disaster and how to help. Presenters include Lee County Emergency Management's Chief of Planning, Gerald Campbell; Lee County 911 Program Manager, Matt Rechkemmer; United Way 211 Operations Manager, Kelly Guelcher; and United Way Volunteer Center Manager, Kim Berghs.

The hotline is a partnership between Lee County Emergency Management, Hendry County Emergency Management, Glades County Emergency Management and The United Way of Lee, Hendry and Glades.

All volunteers must be 18 years of age or older. Volunteers are trained to assist with answering storm related calls. Hours are flexible.

Those interested must register by email to kelly@unitedwaylee.org, or by phone to Kelly Guelcher at 239-433-3900 x 242. The class is located at the United Way of Lee, Hendry and Glades, 7273 Concourse Drive, Fort Myers FL, 33908.
