- When making reservations or purchasing attraction tickets, be sure to ask for discounts (AARP, AAA, etc.).
- Consider staying at a campground and making it an adventure! Save on accommodations at Cayo Costa State Park with nine miles of beautiful beaches and acres of pine forests, oak-palm hammocks, and mangrove swamps, this barrier island park is a Gulf Coast paradise. Fishing, shelling, hiking and biking and nature trails. Accessible only by private boat or ferry. Overnight stays in primitive cabins are $30 per night; and tent camping is $18 per night. For ferry information and reservations visit www.floridastateparks.org/cayocosta.
- Family dining without going broke: it can be done! Have the largest meal at lunch. Prices are less. Then go light on dinner. When looking for a restaurant, ask about special offers that might be available. When booking your hotel, select one that offers free breakfast. Make sure the room has a refrigerator for storing drinks and snacks!
- Chill out in one of the area's museums or science centers. Great value: The Bailey-Matthews Shell Museum on Sanibel Island is the most comprehensive museum in the Western Hemisphere devoted solely to shells. It has been rated a "Gem" attraction by AAA and listed in the book "1,000 Places To See Before You Die." Admission is $7 for adults 17 and older; $4 for 5-16; children four and under are free. Visit www.shellmuseum.org.
- Spend a warm day in one of the area's state parks. Great value: Lovers Key State Park, just south of Fort Myers Beach. The Travel Channel ranked this beautiful park fourth in the state of Florida. This is one of the area's most pristine parks. Walk the boardwalk over tidal lagoons to a sandy, white beach with sea oats. Hike the nature trail, paddle a lagoon. Visit www.floridastateparks.org/loverskey
- Take a ride on the wild side at Babcock Wilderness Adventures. Great $$$ value: Visitors experience the Telegraph Cypress Swamp and scenic woods on a 90-minute swamp buggy tour. View native wildlife, including panthers, alligators, deer, wild
