The SQG Program Respectfully Invites You To The Southwest Florida Environmental Expo

Why should you attend the Southwest Florida Environmental Expo? The Expo is designed with you in mind. First of all, it is free!!! Also, it is an educational opportunity for you to learn what options you have for disposing of your regulated waste.

In addition, this is also an event which can assist you in determining what regulations affect your business and what your responsibilities could be for those regulations.

Through the Expo, you will meet other professionals who work in your industry. Networking with them may yield new ideas in waste handling.

You will also meet regulatory officials who can assist you by clarifying and answering any questions you have about your waste or alternative products. Overall, the Southwest Florida Environmental Expo can benefit attendees in a variety of ways. Stop in, attend a seminar, or simply visit vendors! We look forward to seeing you there. And remember, admission is FREE!!
